Justice Urban Tavern Opens in Downtown Los Angeles on Monday, March 24

Serving Up Modern Dishes, Creative Cocktails and Craft Beers

Complimentary Justice Pint Glasses for First 100 Guests after 4:30 pm on Opening Day

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (March 17, 2014) - Located at the corner of First and Los Angeles Street, Justice Urban Tavern announced today the official grand opening will be on Monday, March 24. Featuring cuisine from Executive Chef Francis Dimitrius and an extensive list of California wines and craft beers, Justice serves up the vibe of a neighborhood tavern with big city flair, offering modern twists on classic cuisine with local ingredients.

"We are excited to introduce Justice to the Los Angeles dining scene," said General Manager Paul Trevino. "We created the concept to offer warmth and comfort and neighborhood bar for locals and business professionals in the surrounding areas."

Diners can choose from diverse menus with powerful flavors, which include the signature Barrister Burger, Beer Battered Cod, Smoked Pork Ribs and Shrimp and Chorizo with Grits, as well as regional specials like Korean Bacon and Eggs with house made Kim Chi, locally sourced cheese and charcuterie and Ice Box Cake. Locals can also enjoy daily happy hour with a variety of specialty cocktails and a generous list of craft beers and wines that are one-hundred percent Californian.

"From my experience as a chef, I hold one universal truth in the kitchen: To simplify the complexity of cooking you must be perfect with hesitation," said Chef Francis. "Preparing a meal cleanly is using nature's bounty without distractions from flavor. Utilizing fine-locally sourced ingredients will enable you to truly and purely taste the essence of what you are eating."

Speaking to the essence of urban Los Angeles and the stonework of classic English-style taverns, the interior will feature earth tones, stone walls, high-top communal bar tables and lounge-style seating. The spacious outdoor patio presents a comfortable and welcoming vibe in the midst of bustling downtown activity. The name, Justice, is a tribute to the Hall of Justice, City Hall, police department and other city and federal agencies that are in the near vicinity. Operated by RIM Restaurant Group, Justice is located adjacent to Little Tokyo, the Arts District and the Civic Center.

Members of the community are invited to the grand opening celebration on Monday, March 24 beginning at 4:30 p.m. with a ribbon cutting, all night happy hour and a complimentary pint glass for the first 100 patrons.

Justice will offer breakfast, lunch and dinner with modern menus at approachable price points, with dishes ranging from $10-18. For more information, please visit www.justicela.com.
